Trent "Rocks" the National Earning Top Whippet Honors

SBIS, BIS Ch. Sporting Field Rock On was chosen as the winner of the 2005 national specialty. Trent was bred by Dionne Butt and Owen J Light and is owned by Dan Black, Bruno Gideon and Dionne Butt. The Sporting Field kennel was registered in 1946 and has become one of the most recognized and successful kennels in the breed. Sporting Field has bred three National specialty winners: Ch. Sporting Field Kinsman, Ch. Sporting Field Winsome Won and now Trent. Debbie has carried forward the legacy of her parents and hopes to keep the classic appearance that has become known as the "Sporting Field" look. Trent was last year's number one whippet in breed points and proved worthy of this distinction today by besting more than 400 whippets. Debbie and Joe feel that some of Trent's finest qualities are his beautiful headpiece, long, crested neck and powerful, low-to-the-ground movement. They are equally impressed with his incredible happy, happy "wobblebutt" personality that makes him so unique and special. Trent produces his classic look in his top winning children and helps their kennel to continue the Sporting Field legacy.

Tivio is Top Producing Kennel

Both brood bitch and extended brood bitch class were won today by Ch. Tivio's Allure. Allie is a homebred of John and Tracy Hite, who have been breeding whippets for 16 years. Tracy started showing horses as a child with hunter jumper and cutting horses and feels that this experience gave her an eye for structure and the ability to see soundness in her dogs.

Allie has produced SBIS and MBIS winning get and was herself a SBIS top winning whippet. The Hites' feel that Allie and her children excel particularly in their breed type, outstanding movement and correct heads. Their proudest moments in the whippet breed have been winning multiple brood bitch classes at the national and regional specialties. They hope that breeders will pay special attention to the health and temperaments of the dogs they carry forward in an attempt to assure the whippet continues to exhibit soundness of mind and body.
